Bachelor of Arts in Business Communication

In this 120-credit program, you'll develop core skills in writing and research, a comprehensive understanding of media communication and technology, as well as an appreciation of how they function in the modern world of business.

Our Bachelor of Arts in Business Communication program provides you with an opportunity to develop a broad knowledge of media, cultural studies and business. In addition, students will develop theoretical and practical skills that are relevant to careers in professional writing, journalism, public relations, communications and advertising.

The program focus is found in a sequence of courses in media and communications. At the same time, it integrates business courses to create an interdisciplinary degree that provides a sound background for work in media and communications organizations, as well as other communications related business careers. Team activities are an intrinsic part of many courses and build team skills vital for real world success, as well as providing a collegial learning environment.
